Compared to the legendary Marantz CD-94, that i also listened for long time, the audio of DVD-player Marantz DV4200 brings the same depth and premium sound found on much more expensive devices. For the price of middle-class player, it brings amazing sound much richer than its price. it is real gem.

Great as a cheap CD player with excellent signal to noise ratio and very low distortion. Make sure you get one with a remote if you want to use it as a DVD player. Also comes in handy when you need to change tracks as CD player without having
