Praying Drunk by Kyle Minor | Poets & Writers

Kyle Minor has obviously made a concerted effort in Praying Drunk to bring unity and aesthetic order to what could otherwise seem just a miscellaneous collection of stories — if even calling them “stories” would give the book a nominal unity, since some of the pieces appear to have originated as essays. The first and most general sign of order comes from an author's note in which we are told, “These stories are meant to be read in order.”
