Robert Keppel's
"Signature Killers" identifies this group as the largest subcategory of Serial Killers. He shows that Signature Killers have their own subcategories. He gives many examples
to illustrate his categories. In his summary of why they kill, he says that "it all

Keppel does a wonderful job of explaining the process of determining a serial killer's signature, and exactly what these signatures tell the investigator about the killer. He also uses real cases and the details of the crimes to walk the lay-person through the actual apprehension.
