Grandin's greatest strength, in her opinion, is her ability to think in pictures. She says she's never thought in words. Words conjure up images in her mind. When she taps into her memory, she describes going to her video library and pulling videos or still pictures from her memory banks. She edits and mixes images to design things in her mind.

Thinking in Pictures Quotes by Temple Grandin

Visual thinking, also called visual/spatial learning or picture thinking is the phenomenon of thinking through visual processing. Visual thinking has been described as seeing words as a series of pictures. It is common in approximately 60–65% of the general population. "Real picture thinkers", those who use visual thinking almost to the exclusion of other kinds of thinking, make up a smaller percentage of the population. Research by child development theorist Linda Kreger Silverman ...
