The angel wants us to see that the very stone of death has been rolled away, turned over, transformed into a pulpit for proclaiming the resurrection gospel. Jesus is not memory but presence, presence which continues to transform the forces of death all around us. Sometimes when we dare to start walking toward Galilee we begin to see.

We want to leave no stone unturned. Through preaching and teaching we desire to minister to the hearts of God’s people. Through outreach and serving we desire to reach those who are outside of the physical church, and have not yet accepted Christ as their Lord and Savior. We have all been broken in someway, and we all seek restoration.

access to the body of Christ. They knew that this stone was blocking their destination, and yet, they would not let the stone stop them! These women began to walk to the tomb, and questioned, “Who will roll the stone away?” This was a huge stone which sealed the tomb of Jesus weighing about 2,000 pounds! It sealed its entrance.
